

	GOVERNANCE	SCOPE	MEMBERSHIP	WEBSITE
FIJI CROP & LIVESTOCK COUNCIL (FCLC)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> FCLC is comprised of 11 registered commodity associations, representing over an estimated 60, 000 farmers across Fiji. These Associations each have a representative on the Council, and are supported by a Secretariat based in Lautoka. The Secretariat is overseen by the Fiji Crop and Livestock Trust, whose Board of Trustees acts as an advisory and lobbying agency for the associations, with direct engagement with farmers to better understand their needs The Mission of FCLC is to explain the business of agriculture with a customer focused and market driven services, and create the right environment for successful farming and improve food security of Fiji. 	The Fiji Crop and Livestock Council aims to raise the profile of Fiji's farmers involved with crop and livestock production. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Strengthening Associations – support the formation and development of agri-food and agri-business commodity associations, including provision of market information and promotion of effective links among associations, members and stakeholders Technical Services – the FCLC Secretariat works with its member associations to introduce services to drive growth towards poverty alleviation, increased outputs and exports, and decrease imports. Advocacy – FCLC is the peak sector body, designed to represent the needs of farmers to Government and Stakeholders, including financiers, aid, rehabilitation agencies and potential new investors. 	# of male members 8,237 # of female members 2,745 # of Youth 4,392 Total members 32,000	www.fclc.org.fj
CARIBBEAN FARMERS NETWORK (CaFAN)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Caribbean Farmers Network (CaFAN), formed in 2004, is a regional network of Farmers' Associations and Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) in the Caribbean. The Secretariat for the Caribbean Farmers Network is the Eastern Caribbean Trading Agriculture and Development Organisation (ECTAD), located in St. Vincent and the Grenadines CaFAN's major focus is to foster linkages, training and information sharing amongst Caribbean farmers so that they are in a better position to respond to the key challenges facing the agricultural sector in the Caribbean. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> To enhance the ability of Caribbean farmers' organisations to deliver services to members and also increase intra and extra regional trade. To increase communication and exchange of ideas, experiences, resources, information and technology, between and among farmers associations in the Caribbean to impact positively on the competitiveness and sustainability of the agriculture sector. To raise awareness, improve advocacy and networking to collectively influence decisions on strategic issues affecting regional agriculture. To mobilize resources for and on behalf of network members. 	CaFAN represents 500,000 small farmers over 15 Caribbean countries: Antigua & Barbuda, Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, Dominica, Grenada, Guyana, Haiti, Jamaica, Montserrat, St. Kitts/ Nevis, St. Lucia, St. Vincent & the Grenadines, Suriname and Trinidad & Tobago.	www.caribbeanfarmers.org
PAPUA NEW GUINEA WOMEN IN AGRICULTURE DEVELOPMENT FOUNDATION (PNGWIADF)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The PNG Women in Agriculture Development Foundation (PNGWiADF) was established in 2006, and the Secretariat is hosted by the National Agriculture Research Institute (NARI) in Lae. PNGWiADF focuses on the creation of an enabling environment in agriculture for development, and does so by providing a voice for women both at government policy level and in relation to other stakeholders in the private sector and the community. 	WiADF's core business falls under two broad categories: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> to provide effective advocacy for women to be recognised as equal partners in all facets of development including agriculture to provide an enabling platform that promotes innovation and the advancement of the role of women in agriculture for development. Information management and dissemination, organisational capacity building and training, networking and partnerships and advocacy are among core activities and functions WiADF provides for its members. At present, more than 8000 individual women farmers are affiliated to WiADF through 128 urban and rural based farmer groups spread through all of PNG's 20 provinces. WiADF's current members represents some 30-35% of all PNG's women farmers.	Farmer organization Approximately 120 # of male members 2320 # of female members 8200 # of Youth 2460 Total members 12,962	www.pngwia.org